2.3	A listed entity should disclose:	Mr Armitage is an independent director.
	 (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director. 	The length of service of each director is reported in the company's Annual Report and on its website.
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.		The Enegex Board is comprised of three directors. The following directors are not considered independent. The reasons for each being considered not to be independent are detailed below.
			RL Clark Executive director
			EG Albers Substantial shareholder
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.		Mr Albers is not an independent director. The Board considers that his lack of independence does not hinder the effective performance of his role as Chairman.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities	Induction of new directors is provided by the Chairman with assistance of the Company Secretary.
	for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	The Board encourages directors to continue their education and maintain the skills required to discharge their duties by participation in professional development opportunities.

4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	The CFO provides a declaration that in his opinion the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that the financial statements comply with the accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal controls which is operating effectively.
4.3	A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Enegex's auditor attends the company's AGM and is available to answer questions.
PRINCIP	LE 5 – MAKE TIMELY AND BALANCED DISCLOSURE
5.1	A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Enegex has a continuous disclosure policy which can be found on its website at http://www.enegex.com/investors/corporate-presentations/
PRINCIP	LE 6 – RESPECT THE RIGHTS OF SECURITY HOLDERS
6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Enegex provides information about itself including its activities, its board and strategy as well as its governance on its website.
6.2	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Enegex provides an email address for use by shareholders who wish to make two-way communication with the Company.
6.3	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Enegex typically holds its meetings at a Melbourne CBD location in proximity to public transport. Shareholders are provided with a Notice of Meeting ahead of the meeting. Participation via questions is encouraged.

6.4	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Enegex provides shareholders with the option to receive communication electronically via its Share registry. Shareholders can communicate with Enegex via email to admin@enegex.com
PRINCI	PLE 7 – RECOGNISE AND MANAGE RISK
7.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.	The Board is responsible for overseeing the effectiveness of risk management so as to: identify, assess, monitor and manage risk; and inform investors of the nature of, and material changes to, the Company's risk profile. The Company's activities are currently centred on advancing its inherently high-in-risk development project. Apart from geological risk, material business risks include financial and operational risk - this is not an exhaustive list of risks faced by the Company. The Board considers the existing policies and procedures for risk oversight to be appropriate for the Company's current size and stage of development.
7.2	The board or a committee of the board should: (a) review the entity's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	The Board has a risk assessment framework which it utilises to identify risks as well as potential risk mitigation strategies. The Board conducts a risk assessment using the framework annually, or more often if appropriate.	During 2019/20 the Board did not conduct a company-wide risk assessment
